

PROGRAMME

A Taste for the Exotic: Cross-Cultural Influences in Early Modern Dress and Textiles

Dressing The Early Modern Network Conference

Thursday and Friday 27-28 September 2018, Abegg-Stiftung, Riggisberg, Switzerland

Thursday 27 September

Regula Schorta - Welcome

Sara van Dijk - Introduction

Session 1: Cotton

Eva Andersson - In Search of Cotton in Early Modern Scandinavia

Victoria de Lorenzo - Global Cross-Cultural Influences through the study of a Failed Transaction. From Philippines to West Africa. The case of Hispanic 'Guinea cloths' in 1778

Chonja Lee - The Other as Consumer. Textiles for the West African Market

Anna Jolly - Keynote

Lunch

Visit to the exhibition

Session 2: Islamic and Oriental Influences in Europe

Torsten Korte - Venice and the East. Giambattista Tiepolo's Orientals

Lauryn Smith - Fabricated Identity. The Re-Use of Islamic Textiles by Sixteenth-Century Austrian Habsburg Women

Raquel Santos - Shifting Patterns, Fitting Tastes. Knotted Pile Carpet Industries

Conference dinner

PROGRAMME

Friday 28 September

Session 3: The Exotic in European visual culture

Katherine Bond - Tastes from the Margins: Peripheral Fashions and Hybrid Forms in Early Renaissance Costume Albums

Michele Robinson - Popular Print, Near East Fashion, and Artisans' Wardrobes in Late Sixteenth-Century Italy

Lunch

Visit to the textile workshop

Session 4: Integration and Appropriation

Isabella Campagnol - A Fashionable Zoo. Exotic Presences in Eighteenth-Century European Dress

Laura Beltran Rubio - Fashioning the "Criollo". Dress and the Creation of a Latin American Identity in the Eighteenth Century

Mei Mei Rado - From the Orient to English. Exoticism and Striped Textiles in Eighteenth-Century French Fashion

Sara van Dijk - Summary

Regula Schorta - Farewell